

1) The journey from Prague airport to the main station (czech: Hlavní nádraží).

From the airport you can get a taxi or public transport.
It is best to use direct airport bus lines - the main station.

Airport Express

The AIRPORT EXPRESS (AE) bus line provides a direct connection between Prague's air, rail and municipal mass transit systems. Buses marked AE (AIRPORT EXPRESS) connect Prague Main Station (Praha hl.n.) and the Prague Airport. Line AE mainly provides connecting transport to the airport for

The AE bus line operates daily at regular 30-minute intervals. In the direction of Prague Airport this connection can be used from 6:35 to 22:05, and in the opposite direction from 5:46 to 21:16. Only low-platform buses are used, ensuring easy boarding and sufficient space for luggage.

VLAK+ Airport

Travel to the Prague Airport by train, with the discounted VLAK+ Prague Airport ticket with an extended term of validity.

With the VLAK+ Prague Airport ticket, we will take you comfortably to the airport and after your return from abroad we will take you back home again too, all for the discounted price of a customer return ticket (25% discount off the regular return fare). Just purchase a return VLAK+ Airport ticket for 2nd-class travel to the destination station Praha letiště/Airport (BUS) and transfer to the Airport Express (AE) bus line at Prague Main Station (Praha hl.n.). In just half an hour you will be at the airport in front of Terminals 1 and 2.

Definitely don't throw your train ticket away. If after your arrival from abroad you have it stamped at any Prague Airport information desk, you will be able to use it to travel back home on the Airport Express line and then by train to the station specified on your ticket as the boarding station.
